

Find your Medical Record Number (MRN) online in 3 easy steps

1

Login to your account at my.uclahealth.org

The screenshot shows the myUCLAhealth.org login page. At the top, it says "my UCLA health". Below that is a "Coronavirus/COVID-19 Alert" with a warning icon and text: "If you have been in close contact with someone with coronavirus (COVID-19) and have experienced any of the following: fever, cough, diarrhea, cold/flu-like symptoms or have concerns that your current symptoms are related to COVID-19, please contact your doctor's office or local public health department for further direction. Click Here for additional information." Below the alert is a "SIGN IN" button and fields for "myUCLAhealth Username" and "Password". There are also links for "Forgot Username?", "Forgot Password?", "New User?", "SIGN UP NOW", and "PAY BILL AS GUEST". On the left, there are four service tiles: "Connect with your Doctor's Office", "Access your test results", "Request prescription refills", and "Manage your appointments". At the bottom, there is a footer with technical support information: "myUCLAhealth Technical Support: (855) 364-7052" and a list of services like "Find the Nearest Medical Office", "Access a Family Member's Chart", "Read the latest Vital Signs newsletter", "Click here for Coronavirus COVID-19 update", and "Coronavirus COVID-19 FAQs".
